

So, how does the Fuck Cancer CareLine work?

Complete the application form. You'll have a chance to tell us about you or the patient you care for, the cancer diagnosis, and what kind of help you need.

A Fuck Cancer team member will email you within 1 week regarding your application.

Be sure to add careline@letsfcancer.com to your email address book so we don't go to spam!

If you are approved for the CareLine, a patient navigator will contact you within 2 business days.

Call or email your personalized patient navigator as often as you need. They're available to help you until all of your concerns and questions are answered.

Patient navigation services provided in both English & Spanish.*
